The rules for accepting foreign students to
Al-Azhar Al-Sharif scholarship

First: General rules:

The following procedures must be observed and confirmed through the Egyptian diplomatic missions abroad.

Principal times:

- The last time for the arrival of nominations (before the end of June of each year).
- The last time for the arrival of the candidates (the first week of September of each year).
- Beginning of studies in universities / institutes (the beginning of the second half of September of each year).

In case of the nominations are received after the specified date, they will not be discussed and will be returned to the concerned mission, and to overcome the issue of the delay in obtaining graduation certificates for candidates in the same year, nominations of graduate students from two previous years are allowed to be accepted in order to achieve the regularity of the educational process from the beginning of the academic year.

Fulfill the procedures:

- 1- The following general conditions apply to all candidate students before starting the rest of the procedures:
 - a. The candidate must be a citizen of the state and hold its nationality, and of non-Egyptian parents.
 - b. He should not have previously been nominated to study in the Arab Republic of Egypt or been dismissed from studying on one of these scholarships for any reason whatsoever.
 - c. He must be medically fit and free from contagious diseases according to an approved medical certificate, and he is physically and psychologically healthy (without any disability).
 - d. It is not permissible to nominate more than one member of the same family (father - mother - children - husband - wife - siblings) on the scholarship at the same time, that is, in the same year of nomination.

- e. The student should not be enrolled in another scholarship in or outside Egypt.
- 2- All documents and papers of the candidates must be completed, approved, and sealed with the emblem of the Republic on one side The embassy before sending it, taking into account that all documents sent are in Arabic, English, or French, or translated from the original language into one of the three languages.
- 3- All nominations are sent to Expatriate Affairs, Training and Technical Cooperation, which handles the nomination procedures.
- 4- That the nominations are according to the number specified for each country by the Expatriate Committee.
- 5- The name of the candidate student must be identical to his name on all the required papers and documents.
- 6- The heads of Al-Azhar missions and the embassy participate in selecting the candidates to award the honorable Al-Azhar, and in the absence of an Azharite mission in the concerned country, Al-Azhar sends whomever it sees fit - through diplomatic channels - with Al-Azhar bearing the costs involved
- 7- Students enrolled in colleges that impose registration fees are exempt from paying these fees.
- 8- Not to grant any student nominated for a scholarship or at his own expense or at the expense of any other party an entry visa except after receiving security approvals and informing the missions abroad of them.
- 9- In case of the student enrolled on a scholarship, whether in Al-Azhar, higher education, or education, withdraws his papers or discharge at his request, and it is taken into account not to nominate him again on any scholarships presented by Egypt with informing the nominating body that

2. A foreign student (graduate of the university or postgraduate studies only) is permitted to carry an extra weight of 20 (twenty) kilograms, and the cities of the mission shall bear the expenses of this extra weight.
